JOHN GRISHAM

When you've read all of Grisham

Why not try...

DUDLEY BUFFA

1

Buffa was a criminal defense attorney for 10 years and his seven Joseph Antonelli novels strive to reflect, from his own experience, what a courtroom lawyer does, the way he (or she) thinks, and the way he feels about what he does.

MICHAEL CONNELLY

2

Michael Connelly decided to become a writer after discovering the books of Raymond Chandler while attending the University of Florida. Once he decided on this direction he chose a major in journalism and a minor in creative writing — a curriculum in which one of his teachers was novelist Harry Crews.

ROBERT DALEY

3

Robert Daley is an American novelist and journalist. He is the author of 31 books: 18 fiction, 12 non fiction, and most recently a small volume of poetry. Five of his books have been adapted for film. A sixth, The Cruel Sport, was sold to MGM and was the basis for the film Grand Prix.

TIM GREEN

4

While Tim played in the NFL, he also studied law and began his writing career. By the time he retired from football in 1994, Tim had already published his first book and become a lawyer.

DAVID ELLIS

5

David Ellis is a lawyer and award-winning author of twelve novels. As an author, Dave won the Edgar Allan Poe Award for Best First Novel for Line of Vision. Since then, he has published Life Sentence, Jury of One, In the Company of Liars, and Eye of the Beholder.

LINDA FAIRSTEIN

6

Linda Fairstein is an American author, attorney, and former New York City prosecutor focusing on crimes of violence against women and children. She was the head of the sex crimes unit of the Manhattan District Attorney's office from 1976 until 2002
